Ceremony

General candid shots of the ceremony including Bride and Father walking down the aisle, ring giving, vows, the kiss etc. will be taken as standard. Bear in mind the majority of officials do not have a problem with photography of the ceremony, however it is worth speaking to your Minister, Vicar, Priest, Rabbi etc because some do differ in their attitude towards where the photographer can stand and the use or not of flash. I will of course speak with them on the day, but you may wish to know sooner rather than later.

- Bride and friends
- Bride and Groom and Bride's friends
- Groom and friends
- Bride and Groom and Groom's friends
- Full wedding party (depending on space and location)
- Confetti throwing
- Other

.....

NB. The larger group shots can be done without problem outside, but in inclement weather indoor shots are possible depending on a big enough room, lighting etc. Small group shots are possible whatever the weather.

After all the formal shots have been taken, we like to single out some locations at your venue, to take some relaxed, romantic, fun shots of just the bride and groom, this can be done at a time that fits in with your agenda.
